PART 2: Tell us about yourselves.

Describe your family (who is in it – name, age, occupation, your personalities, your family dynamics).

Describe the things your family enjoys doing together or individually.

Do you have any pets? If yes, please describe.

With regards to your family, who is the decision maker/manager?

Do both parties always agree? If not, please describe the differences.

What does a typical week look like in your lives?

With reasonable notice can you make yourselves available to the production and the construction teams during daytime hours?

Paet 3: Tell us about your home.

How long have you owned your home?

With regards to your home, who is the decision maker/manager?

Do both parties always agree? If not, please describe the differences.

Describe any upgrades you've made to your home since you've been here.

How well would you say your home is maintained?

Please describe your top three (3) main unresolved repair problems in your home ie. Mouldy basement, leaking pipe, insect infestation etc. (This does not include renovations you hope someday to make that will improve functionality or the aesthetics of your home).

Have you had a professional give you an opinion/estimate on repairs? If no, why not?

Have any friends or family members mentioned that you should be addressing the problems right away?

What do you think might be the consequences of not correcting these problems? Have you even considered this?

How do these problems impact your life? For instance, are you reluctant to have people over? Are you unable to use part of your home? Are you concerned about your family wellbeing as a result of the home repair problems?

Why are you avoiding repairs?

Describe any trips you've taken or major items that you've purchased recently instead of fixing your house?

How important would you say your home is to you?

Why do you want our help?

What makes you a perfect Homewreckers candidate for TV?
